WIZARD: THE LIFE & TIMES OF NIKOLA TESLA
Lecture by Dr Marc J. Seifer to celebrate 150 years of Tesla's birth

Friday, December 1, 2006 7:30 pm
St. Sava Serbian Orthodox Church of Boston,
41 Alewife Brook Parkway, Cambridge, MA
Entrance free of charge

An internationally sought-after speaker with over 70 publications, Dr. Marc J. Seifer is an expert on Nikola Tesla, Serbian-American inventor and engineer who discovered the rotating magnetic field, the basis of most alternating-current machinery. Tesla's inventions make him one of the foremost pioneers in the distribution of electric energy. This year we celebrate 150 years of Tesla's birth.

Dr. Seifer is the author of the acclaimed biography Wizard: The Life & Times of Nikola Tesla as well as Nikola Tesla: The Man Who Harnessed Niagara Falls. Dr. Seifer has lectured at the United Nations, King's College, Cambridge University, Oxford University, West Point Military Academy, and at conferences in Hawaii, Israel, Serbia and Croatia. He teaches psychology at Rogers Williams University.

Book sale and signing event will take place after the lecture, which will feature many rare slides from the turn of the 20th century.

The event is sponsored by the Serbian Orthodox Church of Boston and the Serbian-American Alliance of New England.

Wizard: The Life & Times of Nikola Tesla has been called:

- ✓ REVELATORY by Publisher's Weekly
- ✓ SERIOUS SCHOLARSHIP by Scientific American
- ✓ UTTERLY ABSORBING by Nexus
